

This project includes the construction of two ferryboat ports on Lake Van to connect the Ankara-Tatvan Railroad. A dry dock measuring 90x18x6 meters was constructed to build the 100-meter long ferryboats. Two 300-meter piling wharfs and two 100-meter block quays were constructed in addition to the jetties.

{gallery}marine/article_id_138{/gallery}

Client General Directorate of Railways, Ports and Airports Construction (DLH)

Location Van / Turkey

Contract Date 01 October 1965

Completion Date 30 September 1971

{backbutton}