

Yuksel has been awarded the Completion of Construction of a new National Police Command Center (NPCC) Phase 2 Project by the Ministry of Interior (MOI) Afghan National Police (ANP) in Kabul Province, Afghanistan. The Employer of the Project is the US Army Corps of Engineers of the US Government. The project includes the design verification, material, labor, and equipment supply works to complete the construction of buildings, parking, utilities, grading and other infrastructure works for a population of approximately 5,500 personnel. The USD 32 million valued project has a completion duration of 450 days and Yuksel undertakes the contract as a prime contractor.

LAST UPDATED on 25th June 2013

{backbutton}