

Yuksel has been awarded a new infrastructure project in Saudi Arabia in September. The project is the construction of First Stretch of Abi Bakr As Siddiqe Road from King Abdullah Road Intersection to Prince Salman Road Intersection and belongs to Ar-Riyadh Development Authority (ADA). The construction of 326 m overfly bridge, 2.2 km asphalt road, and 3 no. of pedestrian overpasses with all civil mechanical and electrical infrastructure works are included within the project scope. A storm drainage network, the construction of Reverse Osmosis Plant with tanks and 3 no. of water wells, the landscaping & hardscaping works and relocation of existing utilities at junction points are also involved in the project. The completion period of project is 30 months while the total value of project is SAR 280.98 million (USD 74.93 million). The project is undertaken by Yuksel as prime contractor.

Last Updated On 17 September 2013

{backbutton}