

The project belongs to Royal Commission Jubail & Yanbu and located in Ras Al Khair, Eastern Province of Kingdom of Saudi Arabia. The scope includes the supply and construction of a sea water pumping station to provide cooling water for various industries in Ras Good Industrial Area with a capacity of 75.000 m³/h for the first phase. The project consists of construction of seawater cooling pump station with construction of Hypochlorite Generation Building, Staff/Control Building, Switchgear Building, Guard House, SEC Building, Workshop Building and 115 kV Power Supply.

{gallery}building/article_id_1007{/gallery}

Client Royal Commision Yanbu & Jubail

Location Ras Al Khair / Saudi Arabia

Contract Date 11 December 2013

Completion Date 04 January 2018

{backbutton}